(5) The Hearing Officer may set the motion for oral argument and call for the submission of proposed conclusions of law, findings of fact, and briefs. If the period required to rule upon the motion will extend beyond the date set for the hearing, the Hearing Officer may, on the Hearing Officer's own initiative, continue the hearing until the Hearing Officer rules upon the motion.

(6) The Hearing Officer may determine that the matter may better be resolved via an evidentiary hearing and is inappropriate for resolution by summary determination. If the Hearing Officer decides to deny a summary determination motion, the Hearing Officer shall notify the parties in writing of that determination.

(7) If all issues are decided by summary determination, no hearing will be held, and the Hearing Officer shall prepare his or her decision. If summary determination is denied, or if partial summary determination is granted, the Hearing Officer shall issue a memorandum opinion and order, interlocutory in nature, and the hearing will proceed on the remaining issues and factual matters still in dispute.

SYNOPSIS AND MAIN FEATURES OF PROPOSED RULE 590-4-6-.16 ENTITLED “EVIDENCE; OFFICIAL NOTICE” BY THE COMMISSIONER OF SECURITIES OF THE OFFICE OF THE GEORGIA SECRETARY OF STATE

Synopsis:

The purpose for adopting Rule 590-4-6-.16 is to provide by rule for the rules of evidence to be applied in hearings under the Uniform Securities Act.

Main Features:

The main feature of this rule is that the hearing officer applies the rules of evidence as applied in the trial of a civil nonjury case in the Georgia Superior Courts. Additionally, the hearing officer has the discretion to authorize or require the submission of direct testimony in written form and may take notice of judicially recognizable facts. Furthermore, parties are not deemed to waive objections by further participation in the hearing.

Text of Rule:

590-4-6-.16 Evidence; Official Notice.

(1) Pursuant to the APA, the Hearing Officer shall apply the rules of evidence as applied in the trial of civil nonjury cases in the superior courts and may, when necessary to ascertain facts not reasonably susceptible of proof under such rules, consider evidence not otherwise admissible thereunder if it is of a type commonly relied upon by reasonably prudent persons in the conduct of their affairs. At the discretion of the Hearing Officer, such evidence that may be admitted includes the following:

(a) Records, reports, statements, plats, maps, charts, surveys, studies, analyses, or data compilations, in any form, of public offices or agencies, setting forth (i) the activities of the office or agency, or (ii) matters observed pursuant to duty imposed by law as to which matters there was a duty to report, or (iii) factual findings resulting from an investigation or research not performed in conjunction with the matter being heard and carried out pursuant to authority granted by law, unless its probative value cannot be determined or it lacks trustworthiness due to the sources of information or other circumstances;

(b) Reports, records, statements, plats, maps, charts, surveys, studies, analyses, or data compilations after testimony by an expert witness that the expert witness prepared such document and that it is correct to the best of the expert witness's knowledge, belief and expert opinion;

(c) To the extent called to the attention of an expert witness upon cross-examination or relied upon by the expert witness in direct examination, statements contained in published treatises, periodicals, or pamphlets on a subject of history, medicine, or other science or art, established as a reliable authority by the testimony or admission of the witness or by other expert testimony or by official notice;

(d) Any medical, psychiatric, or psychological evaluations, or scientific or technical reports, records, statements, plats, maps, charts, surveys, studies, analyses, or data compilations of a type routinely submitted to, and relied upon by, the Commissioner in the normal course of his or her business; and

(e) Documentary evidence in the form of copies, if the original is not readily available, if its use would unduly disrupt the records of the possessor of the original, or by agreement of the parties. Upon request, parties shall have an opportunity to compare the copy with the original. Documentary evidence may also be received in the form of excerpts, charts, or summaries when, in the discretion of the Hearing Officer, the use of the entire document would unnecessarily add to the record's length. The entire document shall be made available for examination or copying, or both, by other parties at a reasonable time and place.

(2) Where practicable, a copy of each exhibit identified or tendered at the hearing shall be furnished to the Hearing Officer and the other parties when first presented at the hearing.

(3) The Hearing Officer shall give effect to statutory presumptions and the rules of privilege recognized by law.

(4) If scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge may assist the Hearing Officer to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue, a witness qualified as an expert by knowledge, skill, experience, training, or education, may testify thereto in the form of an opinion or otherwise. The facts or data in the particular case upon which an expert bases an opinion or inference may be those perceived by or made known to the expert at or before the hearing. If of a type reasonably relied upon by experts in the particular field in forming opinions or inferences upon the subject, the facts or data need not be admissible in evidence. The expert may testify in terms of opinion or inference and give the reasons therefore without prior disclosure of the underlying facts or data, unless the Hearing Officer requires otherwise. The expert may in any event be required to disclose the underlying facts or data on cross-examination.

(5) The Hearing Officer shall have the discretion to authorize or require the submission of direct testimony in written form. Unless otherwise ordered by the Hearing Officer, a party submitting such testimony in support of an issue on which he, she, or it has the burden of proof shall file and serve the testimony upon all parties not less than fifteen (15) Days before the hearing. All other such testimony shall be filed and served upon all parties not less than five (5) days before the hearing. The admissibility of the evidence contained in written testimony shall be subject to the same rules as if the testimony were produced under oral examination. The witness presenting the statement shall swear to or affirm the statement at the hearing and shall be subject to full cross-examination during the course of the hearing.

(6) Whenever any oral testimony sought to be admitted is excluded by the Hearing Officer, the proponent of the testimony may make an offer of proof by means of a brief statement on the record describing the excluded testimony. Whenever any documentary or physical evidence or written testimony sought to be admitted is excluded, it shall remain a part of the record as an offer of proof.

(7) All objections shall include a statement of the legal basis for the objection and shall be made promptly, or they shall be deemed waived. Parties shall be presumed to have taken exception to an adverse ruling. No objection shall be deemed waived by further participation in the hearing.

(8) Official notice may, in the discretion of the Hearing Officer, be taken of judicially recognizable facts. Any documents officially noticed shall be admitted into the record of the hearing. All parties shall be notified either prior to or during the hearing of the material noticed, and any party shall, on a timely request, be afforded an opportunity to contest the matters of which official notice is taken.

(9) The weight to be given to any evidence shall be determined by the Hearing Officer based upon its reliability and probative value.

“SUBPOENAS AND NOTICES TO PRODUCE”BY THE COMMISSIONER OF SECURITIES OF THE OFFICE OF THE GEORGIA SECRETARY OF STATE

Synopsis:

The purpose for adopting Rule 590-4-6-.17 is to provide by rule for the procedure for a party to request the issuance of a subpoena from the hearing officer. Main Features:

Requests for subpoenas shall be in writing and filed at least five (5) days prior to the hearing or deposition at which the attendance of the witness or the production of documents is sought, shall be served upon all parties, and shall identify the witnesses whose testimony is sought or the documents or objects sought to be produced. The hearing officer has the discretion to relieve any party not represented by counsel of the requirements for requesting a subpoena other than the service requirement. Additionally, where a request for production of documents is made, the notice to produce must be filed with the Commissioner.

Text of Rule:

590-4-6-.17 Subpoenas and Notices to Produce.

(1) The Hearing Officer shall have the authority to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of objects or documents at depositions or hearings provided by these Rules and the Act.

(2) Requests for subpoenas shall be in writing and filed at least five (5) days prior to the hearing or deposition at which the attendance of the witness or the production of documents is sought, shall be served upon all parties, and shall identify the witnesses whose testimony is sought or the documents or objects sought to be produced. Every subpoena shall be issued by the Hearing Officer under the seal of the agency for which the Hearing Officer working and shall state the title of the action. The party requesting the subpoenas shall be responsible for filling in the subpoenas in a manner consistent with the request for subpoenas and serving the same sufficiently in advance of the hearing to secure the attendance of the witness or the availability of the witness's testimony on deposition at the time of the hearing.

(3) Any party that is not represented by counsel may be relieved by the Hearing Officer of the requirements of paragraph (2) above other than the service requirements. At the discretion of the Hearing Officer, such a party may obtain subpoenas by orally providing the Clerk with the names of the persons desired to be subpoenaed and a description of the testimony or documents or objects sought. If such a request for subpoenas is made orally and approved by the Hearing Officer, the Clerk shall reduce the request to writing and shall have a copy of the request served upon all other parties.

(4) A subpoena may be served at any place within this State and by any sheriff, by his deputy, or by any other person not less than 18 years of age. Service upon a party may be made by serving his, her, or its counsel of record. Fees and mileage shall be paid to the recipient of a subpoena in accordance with Code Section 24-10-24.

(5) Once issued, a subpoena may be quashed by the Hearing Officer if it appears that the subpoena is unreasonable or oppressive, or that the testimony, documents, or objects sought are irrelevant, immaterial, or cumulative and unnecessary to a party's preparation and presentation of his, her, or its position at the hearing, or that, for other good reasons, basic fairness dictates that the subpoena should not be enforced. The Hearing Officer may also condition denial of a motion to quash a subpoena upon the advancement by the person in whose behalf the subpoena is issued of the reasonable cost of producing the documents or objects.

(6) Once issued and served, unless otherwise conditioned or quashed, a subpoena shall remain in effect until the close of the hearing or until the witness is excused, whichever comes first.

(7) Where a party desires to compel production of documents or objects in the possession, custody, or control of another party, in lieu of serving a subpoena under this Rule, the party desiring the production may serve a notice to produce upon the other party. Service may be perfected in accordance with paragraph (4) above, but no fees or mileage shall be allowed therefor. Paragraphs (5) and (6) above shall also apply to such notices. The notice shall be in writing, signed by the party seeking production of the evidence, or his, her, or its attorney, and shall be directed to the opposite party or his, her, or its attorney. A copy of any notice to produce shall be filed simultaneously with the Clerk.

SYNOPSIS AND MAIN FEATURES OF PROPOSED RULE 590-4-6-.18 ENTITLED “DEPOSITIONS AND WRITTEN QUESTIONS TO SECURE TESTIMONY”BY THE COMMISSIONER OF SECURITIES OF THE OFFICE OF THE GEORGIA
SECRETARY OF STATE

Synopsis:

The purpose for adopting Rule 590-4-6-.18 is to provide by rule for procedures related to the taking of testimony via deposition or on written questions.

Main Features:

The decision to order that testimony of a witness be taken by deposition or on written questions is left to the discretion of the hearing officer. A party seeking to take the testimony of a witness by deposition or on written questions must make application to the hearing officer by filing a motion with the clerk and serving the motion on all parties. Subject to the ruling on any objections to the testimony, a deposition or written questions and answers shall be received in evidence as if the testimony contained therein had been given by the witness before the hearing officer.

Text of Rule:

590-4-6-.18 Depositions and Written Questions to Secure Testimony.

(1) Any time during the course of a proceeding, the Hearing Officer may, in the Hearing Officer’s discretion, order that the testimony of a witness be taken by deposition or on written questions. Application to take a deposition in lieu of personal appearance at the hearing shall be made by motion filed with the Clerk and served upon all parties. Such motion shall state the name and address of the witness, the time when, the place where, and the subject matter about which the witness would be deposed, the relevance of such testimony, and the specific reason why the witness cannot, or will not, appear to testify at the hearing.

(2) In the exercise of the Hearing Officer’s discretion in deciding whether to order testimony by deposition, the Hearing Officer may consider, among other factors:

(a) Whether requiring the appearance of a witness subject to subpoena would endanger the witness’s health or work an undue hardship;

(b) Whether a showing has been made that a non-resident potential witness, who is not subject to subpoena in this State and is willing to appear voluntarily to be deposed in the jurisdiction of the witness’s residence, would be subject to being compelled to appear and be deposed under any law in the jurisdiction of the witness’s residence (e.g., a Uniform Foreign Depositions Act); or

(c) Whether ordering the taking of testimony by deposition will result in an undue burden on any other party, an undue delay in the proceeding, or any injury to other parties from the delay.

(3) If the Hearing Officer orders testimony by deposition, the Hearing Officer may specify whether the scope of examination upon deposition should be limited in any way.

(4) Procedures for oral depositions to secure testimony shall be as follows:

(a) Examination and cross-examination of a deponent shall proceed under the same rules of evidence applicable to hearings under the Act and these Rules. Each deponent shall be duly sworn by an officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the United States or the place where the examination is held, and the deponent's testimony shall be recorded and transcribed. Any objections made at the time of the deposition to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, to the manner of the taking of the deposition, to the evidence presented, to the conduct of any party, or any other objection to the proceedings shall be recorded and included in the transcript. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objection.

(b) Any error or irregularity in the notice of taking testimony by deposition shall be deemed waived unless written objection thereto is filed with the Clerk and served upon all parties prior to the deposition. Any objection relating to the qualifications of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall be deemed waived unless made before the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the alleged lack of qualification becomes known or could be discovered in the exercise of reasonable diligence.

(c) Any objection to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony is not waived by failure to make such objection prior to or during the deposition unless the ground of the objection is one that might have been obviated or removed if presented prior to or during the deposition. Any error or irregularity occurring during the taking of the deposition in administering the oath or affirmation, the manner of the taking of the deposition, the form of questions or the answers thereto, the conduct of any party, or any error of a kind that might be obviated, removed or cured if timely raised, shall be deemed waived unless reasonable objection thereto is made at the deposition.

(d) Any error or irregularity in the manner in which the testimony is transcribed or the deposition is prepared, certified, transmitted, filed or otherwise dealt with by the person taking the deposition shall be deemed waived unless a motion to strike all or a part of the said deposition is made with reasonable promptness after such error or irregularity is, or in the exercise of reasonable diligence should have been, ascertained.

(e) The deposition shall be transcribed, certified by the officer taking the same, and filed with the Clerk. Any party who contends that the transcript does not truly or fully disclose what transpired at the deposition shall file a notice with the Clerk specifying any alleged errors and omissions within ten (10) days of the filing of the deposition. If the parties are unable to agree concerning the alleged errors and omissions, the Hearing Officer shall set the matter down for hearing with notice to all parties and shall resolve the differences to make the record accurately conform to the truth.

(f) Documents and things produced for inspection during the examination of the witness shall, upon the request of a party, be marked for identification and annexed to, and returned with, the deposition, and may be inspected and copied by any party. Copies may be substituted for originals if each party is given an opportunity to compare the proffered copy with the original to verify its correctness.

(5) Application to take testimony by written questions shall be made and considered in the same manner as prescribed for depositions in paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this Rule. If the Hearing Officer orders the taking of testimony on written questions, each written question shall be answered separately and fully in writing under oath, unless objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated in lieu of an answer. The answers shall be signed by the person making them, and any objections shall be signed by the attorney making them.

(6) Subject to appropriate rulings on objections, a deposition or written questions and answers shall be received in evidence as if the testimony contained therein had been given by the witness before the Hearing Officer.

(7) Whenever used in this Rule, the word "witness" shall be construed, where appropriate, to include parties.

SYNOPSIS AND MAIN FEATURES OF PROPOSED RULE 590-4-6-.20 ENTITLED “HEARING PROCEDURE” BY THE COMMISSIONER OF SECURITIES OF THE OFFICE OF THE GEORGIA SECRETARY OF STATE

Synopsis:

The purpose for adopting Rule 590-4-6-.20 is to provide by rule for the procedures to be used for a hearing under the Act and Rules of the Commissioner to ensure an expeditious, fair and orderly hearing.

Main Features:

The hearing officer may take any action not inconsistent with the Act and these Rules or the APA for the maintenance of order at the hearing and for the expeditious, fair, and impartial conduct of the proceeding. If a law or rule is challenged on the basis of its constitutionality, such laws or rules and the constitutional provisions alleged to be in violation must be cited with specificity. Hearings may be conducted telephone or electronic communications if the record reflects that all parties have consented to the use of such communications or the hearing officer determines that such procedure will not jeopardize the rights of any party to the hearing.

Text of Rule:

590-4-6-.20 Hearing Procedure.

(1) The Hearing Officer shall conduct a fair and impartial hearing, take action to avoid unnecessary delay in the disposition of the proceedings, and maintain order. For these purposes, the Hearing Officer may:

- (a) Arrange for, and issue, notices of the date, time, and place of hearings and conferences;
- (b) Establish the methods and procedures to be used in the development of the evidence;
- (c) Hold conferences to settle, simplify, determine, or strike any of the issues in a hearing, or to consider other matters that may facilitate the expeditious disposition of the hearing;
- (d) Administer oaths and affirmations;
- (e) Regulate the course of the hearing and govern the conduct of the participants;
- (f) Examine witnesses called by the parties;
- (g) Rule on, admit, exclude, or limit evidence;
- (h) Establish the time for filing motions, testimony, and other written evidence, exhibits, briefs, proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, and other submissions;
- (i) Rule on motions and other procedural matters before the Hearing Officer, including, but not limited to, motions to dismiss for lack of jurisdiction or motions for summary determination;

(j) Order that the hearing be conducted in stages;

(k) Allow cross-examination;

(l) Order that any information so entitled under applicable state or federal rule or statute be treated as confidential or privileged information and be accorded the degree of confidentiality required thereby;

(m) Reprimand, or exclude from the hearing, any person for any indecorous or improper conduct committed in the Hearing Officer's presence;

(n) Subpoena and examine any witnesses or evidence the Hearing Officer believes necessary for a full and complete record; and

(o) Take any action not inconsistent with the Act and these Rules or the APA for the maintenance of order at the hearing and for the expeditious, fair, and impartial conduct of the proceeding.

(2) When two or more parties have substantially similar interests and positions, the Hearing Officer may limit the number of attorneys or other party representatives who will be permitted to cross-examine and to argue motions and objections on behalf of those parties. Attorneys may, however, at the Hearing Officer's discretion, engage in cross-examination relevant to matters that, in the Hearing Officer's opinion, have not been adequately covered by previous cross-examination.

(3) Whenever any party raises issues under either the Georgia or United States Constitution, the sections of any laws or rules constitutionally challenged and any constitutional provisions such laws or rules are alleged to violate must be stated with specificity. In addition, an allegation of unconstitutionality must be supported by a statement either of the basis for the claim of unconstitutionality as a matter of law or of the facts under which the party alleges that the law or rule is unconstitutional as applied to the party. Although the Hearing Officer is not authorized to resolve constitutional challenges to statutes or rules, the Hearing Officer may, in the Hearing Officer's discretion, take evidence and make findings relating to such challenges.

(4) Any hearing that is required, or permitted, hereunder may be conducted by utilizing remote telephonic or electronic communications if the record reflects that all parties have consented to the conduct of the hearing by use of such communications or that the Hearing Officer has determined that such procedure will not jeopardize the rights of any party to the hearing.

(5) In proceedings before the Hearing Officer, if any party or an agent or employee of a party disobeys or resists any lawful order or process; or neglects to produce, after having been ordered to do so, any pertinent book, paper, or document; or refuses to appear after having been subpoenaed; or, upon appearing, refuses to take the oath or affirmation as a witness; or after taking the oath or affirmation, refuses to testify; or disobeys any other order issued by the Hearing Officer, any party may apply to, and the Hearing Officer shall certify the facts to, the Superior Court of the county where the offense is committed for appropriate action, including a finding of contempt. In addition to or in lieu of said remedy, the Hearing Officer may impose sanctions against any party due to the disobedience or resistance of that party or him/her or its privy, including, but not limited to, striking the party's pleading, entering a summary order against the party, or take an appropriate adverse evidentiary inference.
